Eclipses all Previous had been ordered for an emergency, lieutenant expressed to them the ap- female, of a whole nation rested upon and so when the emergency came the preciation of himself and brother of- his shoulders, and they were equal to Ones.

WEALTH, BEAUTY, FASHION.

Night.

GOLD BRAID AND DIAMONDS.

The Navy, Army and Local Society.

The Biggest, the Merriest and the Best Conducted Public Function Ever Seen Here.

When the carriages began to roll into the Executive grounds last evening and leave the invited guests of the ball at the ex-royal door, there was no doubt in anybody's mind that the function would be a success of magnitude. The vehicles came in a continuous stream after 8 o'clock and they brought the best people of Honolulu with them. A ruddy hae of welcome pervaded the scene, the old abode of monarchy being a coruscating blaze of light, like Aladdin's palace in the Arabian tale. From every balcony great oriental lanterns of crimson and gold swung gently in the soft evening breeze; and as the ex-throne room is called, perfrom the windows and doors came the dance at the same time, and the scene mellow glare of the electric lights, re- as they went gliding and whirling flected from white walls and crystal through the terpsichorean maze was as chandeliers. At the head of the broad beautiful as a vision of the caliphate. flight of steps officers of the Hawaiian with the daintiest of Parisian costumes, National Guard in full panoply of war and the gold braid and buttons of the partment.

point of immediate interest. Under lined the walls and sat in the chairs been transformed into a symphony in been tempted by the invitations of the son hangings, from which royalty has the passing show. Many recalled other creeping vines and ornamented with place. "It was there the Queen sat palms and palm leaves, while across at the last ball," said a lady pointing to caught up along the ceiling and hanging leaves. "Yes, and I can't look about colors. Where the regal orders used ing to see Kalakaua and the rest of to repose in their oval glass frames them with their uniforms and orders. were sailor devices such as Yankee tars It calls up the old times very vividly in wear on their service hats. On the spite of the absence of the natives." cornices, covering the crowns, gilded This was a common reminiscence on shields were affixed.

dais. These were Mesdames S. B. and frippery have gone to stay. Dole, J. S. McGrew, H. W. Severance, W. O. Smith, H. F. Glade, S. G. the morning when the twentieth and Wilder and E. D. Tenney. The first last number was reached on the proones to pay their respects were Admiral gram and the happy dancers called J. S. Skerrett and staff, consisting of their carriages to the door. "So de-Lieutenants Wilson and Fex, the lightful," some of them said. "A officers of the Boston in whose honor charming affair," was the phrase of B. F. Day, all in the social dress with- delightful time." "A perfect success." out epaulets; Captain Barker of the "Annexationists need no help in giving Philadelphia; the Chancellor, Chief a fine ball," "It was more than prince-Justice Albert F. Judd and Associate ly." "Everything passed off so well Justices Bickerton and Freat Acting President Hatch and Ministers Damon, Smith and King, United States Consul an ideal place." "An revoir," General Severance, German Consul-Glade, and Goo Kim and Ah Lo, the representatives of China. Following these was a brilliant procession of naval dignitaries, Hawaiwaiians were, as a general thing, conspicuous by their absence, though Mr. Iosepa and a few other distinguished members of the race were present. Mingling in the throng early in the evening were Rev. Messrs. Bishop and assembly, not to speak of a delegation of Portuguese with their wives and cosy corners of the dining hall. Truly, it was a democratic function, representative of all the elements that enter into the Annexation movement.

people who went there to cool off after "bring me a leg of mutton and a whole the weak lemonade and preparing to make traine; satin trimming, the whirl of the dance. Off in one one, too." Two minutes later the a wry face over it, but at the first gulp Mrs. Henry Davis wo corner the lemonade and punch were waiter appeared with a large dish on a change came over the spirit of his cade silk, gold trimming.

BALL OF THE YEAR. of a crush, and long before the evening lieutenant gazed at the mutton, and wore away Uncle John Hassinger's then at the waiter, and then back at "Ali Baba," simply "winked his other liberal store of punch gave out and be the mutton, and finally exclaimed: eye" in the direction of the man with had to make some more. Luckily he "Well, Honolulu takes the cake for the ladle. But with Mr. Friemann the had kept former occasions in mind and hospitality," and while the ladies case was different. The responsibility had plenty of materials at hand. They pressed him to take more mutton the of suiting the palates, both male and well springs did not follow the example ficers of the efforts of their friends to it. Sipping the liquid a little at a time of Andy Brown's reservoirs and run make their long stay in Honolulu he quickly offered suggestions in rapid dry. There was enough for everyone, pleasant, including Lucien Young.

ON WITH THE DANCE,

"And music arose with its voluptuous swell." Why shouldn't it have done so when Herr Berger's band was grouped around one window and Admiral Sker-Filled the Ex-Palace Last ret's at another. The two musical organizations played alternately and there were but few minutes at any time when with the strains of the orchestration. Following is the program of dances. it appeared in printed form, was a gem. On the first of the four dainty pages etching of Diamond Head and the Waikiki shore, with a canoe, which, perhaps, contained the remnants of the lost cause, just putting to sea. Inside the order of dancing was set down as follows. The "Aloha" was on the cover. 2-Waltz. 3-Polka, 4-Waltz. - Lancers. -Waltz. 7-Schottische -Waltz. BOSTON.

9-Lancers. 10-Polka. 11-Waltz. HONOLULU, 12-York. 13-Waltz. SEPTEMBER 25TH

ALOHA

14-Lancers. 15-Waltz. 16-Lancers. 1893. 17-Waltz. 18-Polka.

19-Waitz. 20-Medley. The size of the Council Chamber, mitted at least two hundred people to received their guests and escorted them naval and military men caught new to the dressing rooms-the ladies to a glitter from the sparkle of regal jewels curtained recess of the old dining hall and the luster of the electric lamps reand the gentlemen to the Finance Dewho never danced and who might not have approved of dancing could not The former throne room was the stay away from the splendid scene, but the deft touch of Mrs. Boardman it had from which even the patronesses had decorative art. The dais with its crim- floor, keenly and happily observant of departed forever, was festooned with occasions of the same kind in the same the canopy the magic name "Boston" the dais where, in place of a throne, a stood out in golden relief. Gracefully palm spread its green and bayonet-like from it were ribbons in the American me," said another, "without half expect-the dancing floor, one brought from the The lady patronesses received in the shadows in which so many "Royal" corner of the room to the left of the personages and so much tinsel, glitter

'You deserve all our compliments.'

"We must have all our balls here. It's

THE GOOD CHEER UP STAIRS. one thousand people, especially when perience than most people think to fix frequent showers and consequent cool up a whole barrel of lemonade and fix ian' army officers and representatives breezes give them an unwonted appeof Honolulu society. The native Hatite, as was the case with most of the This was done last night and every guests last night. Everything seemed body who took a glass thought it was to favor the consumption of food at the "just splendid." If this can be said exquisite white China silk with lace great bail. The fragrant odor emanating from the "light punch" distributed is inadequate to properly express the under the supervision of Mr. Hassinger of the Refreshment Committee, com-Beckwith and many other representa- bined with the lingering taste of some tives of the missionary element. Later, of the aromatic bitters which entered thing "real hard" being dispensed by way of variety a few squads of globe into its composition, induced on this occasion Mr. Hassinger controtters off the Oceanic joined the gay a desire for something in the shape of cocted a sort of happy medium or someprovender, while a walk around the thing which made the medium happy, beautifully arranged tables upstairs, babies, who soon found their way to groaning under the weight of choice viands prepared in the highest style of it just what is was; suitable for infants Mrs. Alexander J. Cartwright wore the culinary art, simply made one raven- and invalids as the patent medicine cream taille Française siik, tri mined ous. But this made no difference. There advertisements say. A STAR reporter with yellow, which was considered the was enough for all and no one went was invited into the laboratory just as most beautiful costume of the evening. Before the dancing began in the old hungry. That this is so cannot be the mixture was being finally tasted throne room everybody went about the better exemplified than by telling a "strictly on its merits." There were President, had on a beautiful dress of big building to see the decorations. little story on Lieutenant Young who, present only Mr. Hassinger and the maise colored sitk, covered with black The lower hall was particularly at with a party of ladies, was sitting on STAR man, Mr. Friemann who attend- net, en traine; ornaments, diamonds tractive in these respects, from its gar the upper veranda about an hour after ance was requested as a conneisseur niture of ferus and palm leaves, and midnight. With his usual courtesy the and three ladies who were invited for green silk trimmed with maidenhair, American and Hawaiian colors. There popular lieutenant had seen that the lemonade. The mixture was stirred up setting off her blonde beauty most harwere many flags hung about, and here ladies were provided with ices, cake, for the last time and carefully ladled moniously. and there some choice tropical plant French candies and other such-like out, ladies first of course. One prostood in a gorgeous vase. Midway trifles so dear to the feminine heart, nounced it lemonade although a little between the stairway and the main and for the matter of that to some of too sweet, a second said it was awful portal was an ottoman with an arrange- the stomachs of the sterner sex as well, nice and wondered how it was made, ment of flowers in a silver epergne, and had even gone so far as to try a but the third evidently had her suspi-The fine chandeliers were festooned water ice himself. He ate a few cions aroused as to the quality of the blue silk with point d'esprit. with ribbons and palapalai. Half way spoonsful of it, but gave it up as a bad lemons used and exclaimed "Why, I up the wide koa staircase, at the main job and, calling a Chinese waiter, asked do believe there is something in it." cream silk; lace trimming; ornaments landing, were more flags and greenery. for some chicken. The waiter an But when it was explained to her that The verandas had plenty of chairs, swered that the chicken was all gone just a little wine had been added to and these were occupied during the and suggested a little cold mutton as draw out the true lemon flavor she was black stik. greater part of the evening by young being about the right thing. "All satisfied. The reporter took his medicouples of the bill and coo age and by right," answered the genial officer, cine bke a little man thinking it was in a white organdie; double, skirt en

Four large tables were arranged in Curacoa; another dash of lemon; anthe hall on which the bulk of the other bottle of champagne," and so on. edibles were placed. Two of those The mixture, after the addition of a extended the length of the room while few more bottles of champagne, was two others were placed across. Num- finally pronounced perfect, and the erous small tables were scattered about reporter again "winked the other eye." the veranda, and at to o'clock when Talk about the "nectar of the gods," i Mr. Friemann, to whom the contract for Messrs. Hassinger and Friemann didn't the supper had been awarded, an- get the recipe for making direct from nounced that all was in readiness and the ancients, it must have taken years the ear was not charmed and haunted invited a STAR representative to accom- of experience in the business to concoct pany him on a final tour of inspection, it. After the "light white punch" com-Mrs. Friemann to whom the tasteful menced to circulate and its qualities Artistically speaking, this program, as arrangement of the viands and careful become generally known, there was a attention to minute details was due, perceptible decrease in the demand for being of the party. Everything was was an arrangement of eagle, shield and f und to be arranged in a manner for it, naval officers would have died stars, and on the last page a delicate to suit the most perfect taste. To describe in detail the various delicacies pointed out to the reporter more generally advertised. As a part would take much space, but a few of ing gift to the officers of the Boston, the more important items may be and as a mark of especial regard in mentioned. There was spring chicken which they and other United States en papilotte, boiled Westphalia hams, turkeys roasted and otherwise, roasted fowls and ducks, boiled beef tongues and California hams, saddles of mutton, ten or twelve varieties of cakes, three varieties of ice cream and three of water ices, several kinds of jelly including champagne, Calves feet and aspic, the latter said to be a rare delicacy; fresh lobster salad and plenty of it. Bonbons and French candies and assorted fruits of various kinds and of local production made up a tempting display. At the centre of the main table was a piece monte or sugar cake structure which will be mentioned further on. The general arrangement of the refreshments, tables, etc., reflected great credit on Mr. and Mrs. Freimann and their assistants. As one of Honolulu's prominent legal lights said: "It is the finest spread I have seen at any like occasion in this ity. The following is the menu as ontracted for by the committee, and o be supplied in quantities sufficient for one thousand guests: MENU.

SALADS. Thicken with Mayonnaise. Fresh Lobste with Capers.

RELISHES Olives. Tomatoes. Pickles. COLD MEATS. Roast Turkey. Spring Chicken. Ducklings. Prime Becf. Ham. Tongues. Saddles of Mutton.

SUNDRIES. Orange and Pineapple Sherbets. Vanilla and and Lemon Ice Cream. Assorted Fruits.

Coffee, Black and with Milk. Assorted Fruits.

olate, Jelly, Wine, Fruit, Cocoanut, Almond and Brend Tarts, etc.

A very few minutes sufficed to fill tions of the table. Eating continued ment. by relays and relays until after 1:30 P. M., when all were satisfied.

One portion of the duties of the Refreshment Committee was that of furnishing the dancers with something to quench their thirst between the whirls. This was assigned to John A. Hassinger, whose reputation as a "concoctor" of light and refreshing drinks is second to none in the Hawaiian the ball was given, headed by Captain others. "We have never had a more group. This reputation has become many a state ball under the old regime, and under the new it has been more than enhanced. For this occasion Mr. Hassinger concluded that a straight or rather a plain lemonade would be about the thing and be prepared some forty or fifty gallons of that refreshing liquid in a manner unknown to out siders and which can be gained only It takes a good deal to feed by experience. It takes more exit so that it suits everybody's taste. for the lemonade the English language appreciation of these who preferred something a little stronger. As the committee had set its foot upon any or - well, it was good anyhow. He called it a "nice light punch" and that silk crepe.

female, of a whole nation rested upon Miss M. Davison looked well in a succession as follows: "A little more lemonade. Women would have sighed for it and children cried for it had its beneficent qualities been better and officials are held by the STAR, the recipe for compounding this excellent punch is published. It is as follows:

Champagne 15
Arrack 5
Curacoa Cordial 2½

To make forty-five gallons of this nixture, as was done last night, the various wines and cordials are emptied into a clean barrel in the above proportions; lemons are then sliced and thrown into the barrel until a ladleful of the mixture cannot be dipped up without bringing four or five slices of the fruit. Sugar is then added to suit the taste and the mixture allowed to stand for four or five hours in order to silk with black lace; ornaments, opals allow of the perfect blending of the and pearls. materials. About fifteen minutes before it is required for use enough broken ice may be put in to sufficently cool it. This is a delicate operation and requires care and experience, as too with pink chiffon; ornaments, diamuch ice would make it too cold and too little too warm. Water cannot be added under any circumstances, it would simply spoil the whole mixture and make genial John Hassinger's hair

This was what was served out last night, and now that the barrel is empty the whole city is praying for another excuse for having it filled again.

turn white.

One or two kicks having been made as to the sufficiency of the food farnished, a STAR reporter was detailed to investigate them with the following result: While food was provided for 1900 the attendance was much over that, and many more were fed than were contracted for. There was a rush for the tables when supper was announced, and during that rush some of the food was abstracted, one person being detected in the act of packing off two whole chickens, and others with more or less. This matter is being he tables after the announcement that looked into to-day and some of the supper was ready, but to one gazing at guilty parties may hear from it later. those in the ballroom, no dimunition The Committee are thoroughly satisfied black sik. in their number was apparent. The that Mr. Friemann more than filled his ballroom was uncomfortably crowded part of the contract and will probably had on a black India silk trimmed in till after 2 o'clock in spite of the attrac so express themselves in the final settle-At the STAR's request Mr. Friemann has given a few items of the edibles actually furnished. There were 500 loaves of bread, between 40 and 50 cakes, 15 dozen chickens, 3 dozen turkeys, 6 dozen ducks, 12 hams and 12 beef tongues and 8 saddles of mutof mutton, besides other smaller items.

WHAT THEY WORE.

Mrs. A. T. Atkinson, handsome black silk train, trimming black and white, ornaments, diamonds.

Miss Adams of Portland, Oregon, was handsomely attired in black silk mull, no ornaments. Miss Atkinson wore a silk brocade; ashes of roses; lace trimmings; en traine. Miss M. Atkinson wore a cream chiffon with lace trimming.

Miss B. Afong wore white China Mrs. L. C. Ables, a cream silk.

Mrs. C. Bolte had a most becoming pink silk. Mrs. George C. Boardman wore an

Miss Berger wore a pink nuns' veilng, chiffon trimming, with her hair in Roman style. Miss Beckwith was dressed in combination black and old rose. Mrs. Andrew Brown, wife of the Superintendent of the Water Works, looked well in plain white. Miss Carter was pretty in a Japanese

Mrs. Sanford B. Dole, wife of the

Mrs. C. L. Carter was in a light

Mrs. Cnas. Crozier, handsome black dress and lace over dress. Mrs. Dodge was attired in a black

Mrs. Lieut. Downs Wilson was in a

Mrs. Samuel M. Damon, a heavy Mrs. Ben. F. Dillingham wore

Mrs. Henry Davis wore black bro dispensed from huge bowls with Chin-dispensed from huge bowls with Chin-ese attendants. There was something and placed it in front of him. The drank the contents of his glass, and as lace sleeves, jet trimming.

Mrs. John Egan appeared in a combination of black silk, lace and jet.

Mrs B. F. Ehlers was very pretty in white silk trimmed with blue chiffon. Mrs. H. F. Davison wore a lovely dea in cream moire silk, pearl and gold trimming.

ink costume with gloves and shoes to Mrs. Walter F. Frear wore a white Bengaline silk. Mrs. Friemann was in a cream silk trimmed with black lace, a very costly affair. Mrs. Henry F. Glade wore a black Spanish lace with satin trimmings, ornaments, diamonds. Mrs. Captain Godfrey wore a white hinese silk, lace trimming, Miss Glade was very becoming in white mull. Miss Clara Glade was very charming a white mull. Mrs. W. W. Hall wore a tan-colored

Mrs. Thomas O. Hobron was dressed a blue organdie with lace trimmings. Mrs. J. A. Hopper was in a black Miss Hassinger looked handsome in lack lace, with red carnations. Mrs. Dr. Howard wore a cream rgandie and lace trimming.

Miss Janet Hare wore a simple blue uns veiling. Mrs. Horner of Lahaina, Maui, was in a rose-colored silk, trimmed with gold braid : ornaments, diamonds. Miss Hatch was dressed in white silk trimmed with maiden hair; ornanents, elegant diamonds. Miss May Johnson looked charming in a dress of plain white, relieved with olored ribbons. Mrs. A. F. Judd, wife of the Chief ustice, was dressed in a magnificent lack silk; ornaments, diamonds. Mrs. P. C. Jones had on a rich dark rocade and light ornaments. Miss Pauahi Judd was in an India

Mrs. E. A. Jones wore a Brussels net, yellow crepe sleeves.

Mrs. Frank Krueger wore black chiffon with pink rose buds, trimmed monds Miss Keough was becomingly dressed n pink silk, lace trimmings.

Mrs. Theo. F. Lansing, was in white China silk with lace trimmings, rnamented with violets. Mrs. Dr. Lundy looked handsome in ed silk square corsage en traine. Mrs. Robert Lewers wore a handome toilet fawn silk, steel embroidery.

Miss Lewers was in black lace dress. Mrs. W. J. Lowrie of Ewa had a hite silk Mrs. Doctor J. S. McGrew, looked egal in a cream and gold brocade silk, ith point lace trimming; ornaments liamonds Mrs. A. J. Magoon, black lace; iamond ornaments. Mrs. A. M. Mellis, was in a black ice with velvet trimming; ornaments diamonds Miss McIntyre, white India silk, ce trimming Miss K. McIntyre, black silk and Mrs M. D. Montsarrat, was in

Mrs. Lieut. Norton, of Washington,

Mrs. George Norton was becomingly attired in black silk; yellow trimmings. Mrs. F. E. Nichols, black silk and Miss Maguire wore a cream surah. Mrs. W. G. Ashley wore a white repe, lace trimming. Mrs. M. Louisson wore a grey emproidered silk with lace trimming rnaments pearls. Miss Paty wore a white organdie, lecollete; lace trimming. Mrs. W. C. Peacock wore a cream silk with gold trimming. Mrs. Capt. Penhallow of San Franisco wore elegant dress of red silk with dark waist. Mrs. Peacock, Sr., wore a black silk. Mrs. M. Renner, was in a red silk

Miss Smithies wore a nun's veiling in Mrs. W O. Smith, a grey and black striped silk; lace trimming; ornaments diamonds. Mrs. Henry W. Severance, wore a gray poplin silk with real lace trimming; ernaments, diamonds. Mrs. H. W. Schmidt, wore a white elk; g dd trimmings. Miss Skerrett, daughter of Admiral Skerrett, was in a white mull with real family, Mrs. Skerrett was composled to valenciennes lace; ornaments diamonds. send her regrets. Miss Lily Sharpe was becomingly attired in pink nun's veiling, trimmed a toast drunk standing by some of the with handsome lace; ornaments silver. Buston's officers. brocade silk; lace trimmings. Mrs. T. G. Thrum wore a black politics kept away.

Mrs Geo. W. Smith, was in black panish lace over a red silk. Mrs. Walter G. Smith, had on a Mrs. J. H. Soper, was in a black r cade silk.

Miss Vida, was prettily dressed in stand in the throne room. ellow satin covered with black net; rn ments, diamonds. Mrs. S. G. Wilder, was dressed en to the pleasure of the guests.

trains in a creation of Parisian striped Uncle John Hassinger thought he silk; old lace trimmings; ornaments, would have to bring Punchbowl down diamonds. Mrs. John Thomas Waterhouse, was in a grey siik.

Mrs. Henry Waterhouse, wore an linuris water with a little "ink" in it. legant dark silk. Mrs. G. K. Wilder, wore a Gobelin tions everyone complimented George ieau back; en traine; ornaments, dia- man.

Mrs. 1. W. Winter, wore a white did a rather light business. "No thank rgandie and satin trimming; crnaments, you, as the punch is so mild I prefer

Mrs. H. F. Wichman, wore a white hina sitk; lace trimmings. Mrs Alexander Young, wore a rich partment with Russian and Aperican silk dress in black.

Miss Williams, was in a brocade silk figured with point; pearl ornaments. Mrs. Wm. Wagner, was in a stylish them from being carted away "below black silk; lace trimming. Mrs. C. L. Wight of Mahukona, Hawaii, looked well in a red china siik and black crepe sleeves. WHAT THE MEN SAID. Ed. Lewis-Well, well, well, Jack Winter-This suits me. Tom Wall-Program all filled.

Colonel Soper-An elegant affair. Lucien Young-Set 'em up again. Vice President Hatch-A success. Dr. Nichols-A most agreeable ball. Charlie Peterson-Such a nice time. Sam Louisson-We are the people. I. Walker Preston-Glad I'm here. Admiral Skerrett-It is most delight-

Major McLeod-The best of its

Minister Damon-1 am very much leased. Dr. Pratt - Nothing homeopathi about this. Frank Krueger-Pm for annexation hereafter. Johnnie Egan-What's the matter ith us? Attorney General Smith-I am havig a good time.

Captain Gunn-Three cheers for the Annexation hall. George Paris-No time to talk. My card is full of dances.

T. F. Lansing-Enjoyable throughout, but not enough to eat. Dr. McGrew-Some things I like about it and some I don't.

Consul H. W. Schmidt-A mos patriotic and happy idea. J. Walter Jones-Well, if you're happy that's what we're after. Uncle John Hassinger-Have you sampled? Do you like it?

C. B. Reynolds-A deal sight better than guarding the old palace. Oceanic's globe-trotters-Blawst me neves but this is a bloody fine affair.

Captain Arthur Brown-'Scuse me too happy to talk-engaged for every Dannie Logan - Aweel 'E neever thot a seech a thing as thees-If we only had some pipers here for a gud

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

auld reel or two.

Aloha Boston. It was a hummer. Every back in town was on duty. But few of the Diplomatic corps were present.

Fifteen hundred invitations were sent out. President Dole was the best missed nan absent.

Several cases of beer were served to To the Ship's Company, U. S. S. Boston: the band men. If you want the ball news you must read the STAR.

There were nearer 1200 than 1000 people present. Adjutant Pratt was a dazzler in his new regimentals. The Admiral enjoyed himself but went home early. Lucien Young was the busiest hand-shaker in the crowd Captain Hugh Gunn made an ex cellent floor manager. There was plenty to eat and drink but no wassail came of it.

Some of the Oceanic's officers spent an hour or two in looking on. The little tables on the upper balcony caught the lunch parties.

Dr. Rodgers in his new uniform was regarded through smoked glass. Quartermaster-General Hall was on hand in his handsome uniform.

Captain Good and his men kept watch and ward at the outer keep. A great many natives gathered about the grand entrance and looked on-The Gazette Company deserves the credit of the fine dancing programs. Everybody conceded that Mrs. Alex. Cartwright was the belie of the ball. day's reception on the Philadelphia. Mrs. Jack Winter was one of the dancing favorites. Her cord was full. Major and A. D. C. George H. Potter, reporters are not very popular with The dress coat prevailed and the Mr. Crowley. Prince Albert put in a rare appearance. The carriage arrangements, thanks to Inspector Macy and the sentries, were perfect. hummer.

Eight hundred chairs were used, six hundred of which were hired for the has seen. Owing to a recent death in her the captain in true jack tar fashion.

"In memory of Captain Wiltse" was Mrs. E. D. Tenney, look handsome | The twelve hundred who came did not miss the three hundred whom gone to Waikiki to get our of the thrown at him had no effect on Joko, hearing of the music.

The showers early in the evening due silk with crepe bodice; pearl orna- cooled the air so that dancing did not cause much discomfort The gold room was furnished with the blue-covered chairs which used to

The excellent music discoursed by the Philadelphia's band added much and fill it before he got through. The fashionable drink about the Ex ecutive building this morning is Apol

For the outside and inside decora

the silk; yellow crepe transpings; wat Stratemeyer and Mrs. George Board-The Chinaman at the lemons de font

> A ladies' cloak and prinking room was patitioned off in the Interior De-

Next time Caterer Friemann will have guards over the eatables to keep

Up in the card room Uncle Joe Marsden astonished the boys with some weird card tricks that he learned in Sumatra.

stairs.

Strangers to the Executive building took great interest in looking at the portraits of royal and distinguished personages.

A crowd of typical tweed-clad globetrotters from the Oceanic invaded the building about 9 o'clock and took in all the sights. Major Geo. C. Potter had a box of fine Havanas in his private office which pretty nearly vanished in smoke before the evening was over. The Chinese servants up stairs got rather bewildered in the crowd and were not precisely sure whether they were on foot or in the cavalry. B. F. Markham of the Boston-This is a grand affair and credit is due to the STAR for it. The STAR is a daisy and you can say I said so. A gold pin was found in the ballroom this morning. It can be had by applying to Mr. Hassinger, describing property and paying for this notice. Dr. Winslow, the new fleet surgeon, who served on the Wateree during the tidal wave at Arica, was a conspicuous figure on the floor last night. The Oceanic's passengers were treated to an unexpected pleasure last night and many of them freely express their thanks at being invited to view the festivities. By 10 o'clock this morning the exterior decorations had been all removed. By noon the interior of the building had almost resumed its normal appearance. Several hundred extra STARS have been printed to day to supply the demand. Come to-morrow morning for your copies as the supply may be gone before noon. One of the naval men said that, in view of a Royalist rumor that trouble would be made last night, the ships' companies of the three cruisers were held in readiness to land. The Philadelphia's battalion was organized day before yesterday. Amateur journalism looks out of the following item like a monkey from a cage: "Both the Holomua and the HAWAHAN STAR speak of the "palace" in connection with last night's ball. The ball was held at the executive building, so named by resolution of the executive and advisory councils several months ago." ALOHA TO THE CREW. Honolula, H. I. Sept. 25, 1891.

The citizens of Honolulu, bearing in mind your long sojourn in this port and the histori-cal event that have made it memorable; appreciating your services to the cause of good government during the American protectorate of 1893; and as a recognition of the manly conduct, self-respect and discipline which have marked your relations with the people of he Hawaiian Islands and your service as a hip's company, beg you to receive with every assurance of esteem and friendship a contribu-tion of food and delicacies herewith conveyed day you have a pleasant voyage home, a future carreer as honorable as the past one and the privilege, should you return to these shores, of saluting the Stars and Stripes as they wave over the Hawaiian Capitol.

With best wishes THE CITIZENS' COMMITTEE.

MONKEY BUSINESS.

The Antics of a Simian Cause a Coolness Between Friends. The steamer Oceanic had on board several usonkeys when she came into port last evening, and this morning two of them were taken out on the wharf for exercise Pointing to a particularly ugly one, Customs Inspector Crowley The next society event will be Satur- solemnly informed a STAR reporter that he had him in training for future journalistic honors, as he intended Mrs. President Dole was escorted by educating him for a reporter. Evidently

Fred Whiting was presented with a small package of mischief in the form of a monkey christened by the donor. The Boston's crew will have their the ship's butcher, "Jimmie." But the feast to-morrow. It will also be a pride of the Oceanic's officers and crew, in the monkey line, is loko. This hairy passsenger has been a fixture on the ship during the past two trips, and The new electric light company sup- owns allegiance to Quartermaster plied the lights-the best the ex-palace Garry, who has taught him many interesting tricks, among which is to salute

A short time since Joko surreptitiously entered the captain's cabin and took up a position in one of the captain's shoes. When Captain Smith entered the little beast gravely saluted him in the usual fashion. "Get out of here," said the officer, and the monkey again saluted. A shower Some said that the ex Queen had of shoes and other available missiles except to make him salute, and he had to be removed by main force. Recently he was noticed near a cage in which was confined a brilliant-hued Japanese pheasant and in the morning the bird was found dead and partially eaten. This is why there is a coolness now between the owners of the monkey and those of the defunct fowl, and dark rumers of gory vengeance are affoat in

BUSINESS NOTICES.

LOST-A Gold Hunting Care Watch, Ciffany maker; case engraved with initials "C. R. S." Finder will be suitably rewarded by returning Watch to Mr. Hugh Gunn, Specimens of the Artistic Work of Charles Good, the newly arrived artist in crayon work, are now on exhibition at Williams' Art and Photographic Gallery on Fort Street, Among them will be found portraits of President Dole, ex Minister Porter, ex-Governor Rice of Kauni, Superintendent Brown of the Water Works, and other prominent officials. An inspection of Mr. Good's work is invited. Cha ges reasonable, 138-tf